NeuroMetrix Reports Q1 2020 Financial Results

WOBURN, Mass., April 23, 2020 (Globe NewsWire) -- NeuroMetrix, Inc. (Nasdaq: NURO) today reported financial and business highlights for the quarter ended March 31, 2020. The Company is a leading developer of neurostimulation-based medical devices that are used to diagnose and treat chronic health conditions.

Q1 2020 Highlights:

- Total revenue in Q1 2020 was $2.2 million. Revenue was adversely impacted by a drop-off in business activity in March due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Q1 2020 gross margin was $1.6 million or 71.4%, which is the highest gross margin percentage that Company has achieved since 2009.
- DPNCheck[®] revenue was a record $1.3 million despite the sales drop-off in March. Substantial progress was made on the second generation DPNCheck system that is targeted for launch in late 2020. This product will position the DPNCheck business for long-term revenue growth.
- ADVANCE[™] revenue was $260 thousand in Q1 2020. The Company has been managing this business for cash flow for the past 5 years but intends to evaluate R&D and marketing investments later this year given the ongoing market demand.
- Sales of Quell[®] direct to consumers (OTC) were $570 thousand with a gross margin above 70% and a positive operating margin. The Company provided engineering support for Quell technology as part of its collaboration with GlaxoSmithKline, which continues to help fund Quell R&D.
- The Company reported that it has two investigational clinical targets in its prescription Quell pipeline: fibromyalgia and chemotherapy-induced peripheral neuropathy (CIPN). These are both large markets with few effective treatments and significant unmet needs.

The Company responded to the COVID-19 pandemic by modifying its operating structure to support employee safety while continuing to provide essential pain relief products to our customers. In addition, the Company created a program to provide Quell devices to individuals with chronic pain who are unable to afford the technology due to the challenging economic conditions.

"Despite the commercial slow down attributable to COVID-19 in March, we were encouraged by Q1 sales activity coupled with a 70%+ gross margin and an improving operating margin. While there is more work to be done to achieve operating profitability, we believe these financial results demonstrate the potential of our core businesses," said Shai N. Gozani, M.D., Ph.D., President and Chief Executive Officer of NeuroMetrix. "We are uncertain when the sales drop-off we saw in March will abate and start to return to normal. However, we hope that revenue lost in Q1 and Q2 will be recovered in the second half of the year. In the meantime, we are focused on employee safety, serving our customers and continuing our R&D programs."

Financials:

In the first quarter of 2020, total revenues were $2.2 million, down 30% from $3.1 million in the prior year period. Gross margin was $1.6 million versus $0.8 million in Q1 2019. The gross margin rate of 71.4% improved from 48% in Q1 2019, excluding the effect of inventory charges taken in the year ago quarter. Operating expenses were $2.2 million, a reduction of $2.3 million from $4.5 million in Q1 2019. Collaboration income of $5.7 million was recognized in Q1 2019. Net loss was $0.7 million compared to net income of $2.1 million in Q1 2019. Net cash usage from operations was $0.8 million compared with net cash provided by operations of $0.4 million in Q1 2019. The Company ended the quarter with cash of $2.8 million.
