NeuroMetrix Announces Frank McGillin, SVP and General Manager, Consumer to participate in a Digital Health Summer Summit Panel at BIO 2016

WALTHAM, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- NeuroMetrix, Inc. (Nasdaq: NURO) announced that Frank McGillin, Senior Vice President and General Manager, Consumer will participate in a panel discussion entitled "The Rise of Enterprise & Condition-Specific Wearables" during the Fifth Annual Digital Health Summer Summit. Digital Health is co-located with the 2016 Bio International Convention at the Moscone Center in San Francisco and the panel discussion will be held on Tuesday, June 7 at 11:15am (Pacific).

Mr. McGillin will join other industry leaders including moderator Chris Bergstrom, Associate Director - Digital Health, BCG; Rich Buchler Co-Founder and CEO, VIZR Tech; Ben Hwang, CEO, Profusa; and Ashwin Pushpala, CEO, Sano Intelligence Inc.

"The theme of the Digital Health Summit event is Igniting the Tipping Point," said Mr. McGillin, "The fact that digital health is also a track at BIO 2016 is a good indication that the time is right for innovative technology that addresses the burden of chronic disease. Products like Quell® are an example of what is possible in a sophisticated connected consumer health device."

The Fifth Annual Digital Health Summer Summit at BIO 2016 takes a deep dive into the elements of a successful digital health venture and showcases the latest digital health innovations from the industry's leaders and organizations who will explore the issues and opportunities facing the industry.
