

NeuroMetrix CEO Interviewed on CEONEWS.Tv

Company is Addressing Diabetes-Related Nerve Disease

WALTHAM, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 26, 2012-- NeuroMetrix, Inc. (Nasdaq: NURO), a medical device company focused on the diagnosis and treatment of neurological complications of diabetes announced that Chief Executive Officer Shai N. Gozani, M.D., Ph.D. has been interviewed on CEONEWS.Tv, a financial news network. The interview is available at: <http://www.ceonews.tv/nuro/>

In the interview, Dr. Gozani discussed his vision for NeuroMetrix and the company's early success with NC-stat® DPNCheck™, a fast, accurate, and quantitative test for diabetic peripheral neuropathy (DPN). DPN is a nerve disease that affects over 50% of patients with diabetes and can lead to foot ulcers and amputation. Dr. Gozani reviewed the market opportunity and most important market segments. He also outlined the company's R&D pipeline and important milestones for 2012. The company recently completed an $8.5M public offering to fund its commercial and product development efforts. NeuroMetrix was founded in 1996 and has been publicly traded on Nasdaq since 2004, he noted.

NeuroMetrix was also recently featured in the Conservative Speculator which can be viewed at <http://wallstreetcorner.com/cs/NURO.pdf>
